

ARB - ARCHITECT'S REGISTRATION BOARD - DROP IN CLINIC

KELVIN ROOM AT THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF EDINBURGH

22-26 GEORGE STREET, EDINBURGH EH2 2PQ

10.00 – 12.00 3rd JULY 2017

Emma Matthews, Head of Qualifications and Governance, of ARB is holding a Drop In Clinic on the Monday morning 3rd July for anyone from the UK or abroad who may be interested in finding out more about registering as an architect in the United Kingdom.

To learn more about the ARB and how to go about applying for registration do visit the ARB website:

<http://www.arb.org.uk/>

The website includes information for architects, the public, students and schools of Architecture. You can also read about how ARB was established by an Act of Parliament and ARB's role to regulate the profession in the UK. Emma is happy to talk about UK architectural qualifications in general or to answer individual questions about registering with the ARB. She can also provide an overview of how the profession is regulated according to UK law, including how the title 'architect' is protected. Emma looks forward to meeting as many of you as have questions on registration in the UK.

If you have a question for Emma, then please drop in between 10am and 12pm on Monday, 3rd July.

EMMA MATTHEWS

Emma Matthews is ARB's Head of Qualifications and Governance. Emma has twenty years' experience of working in a regulatory environment, having previously worked in the field of university quality assurance. Emma and her team deal with the recognition of UK and European qualifications in architecture, as well as regularly answering queries about the registration requirements and processes.
